Helms Granted National Publications Post In ODK

Dr. Lloyd A. Helms, chairman of the economics department, has been chosen national chairman of the Committee on Publications for Omicron Delta Kappa, leadership honor society for men. Dr. Helms is faculty secretary of the Bowling Green chapter.

Roger Kasten, president of the Beta Tau Circle, announced that news of the appointment came from Dean Gordon Johnson of the University of Denver, national ODK president, through the national secretary, Robert Bishop, dean of men at the University of Cincinnati.

Dr. Helms is the first member of the Bowling Green chapter to be awarded a national office. His duties will be to survey The Circle, national ODK publication, and the ODK Booklet of Information, which is revised every two years following the national convention. He will seek methods of improving and revising both publications, Kasten said.

Assisting Dr. Helms in his survey will be Brad Greenberg and Richard Humphrey, student members of ODK.

The first formal meeting of his national committee will occur at the national convention April 21, 22, and 23 at Louisville.

Students, Townsfolk, Faculty To Appear In Lenten 'Requiem'

Johannes Brahms' "A German Requiem" will be presented for the first time at Bowling Green State University on Palm Sunday, April 3 in the Men's Gym.

It is not a Requiem or Mass for the dead in the truest Roman Catholic sense of the word since all Requiem Masses up to this time had followed the form of the Roman Catholic Masses, employing the orthodox Latin text. Brahms himself chose the text for this Requiem, selecting freely from the Old and New Testament. It was originally written in German. However, this performance will be in English. The Requiem was composed to commemorate the death of Brahms' mother and his close friend Robert Schumann.

The chorus will consist of members of the A Cappella Choir, Treble Clef, as well as interested students and townspeople.

Unlike "The Messiah," only two soloists are used. The bass soloist is Prof. Joseph Himmel, member of the music faculty. Miss Suzanne der Derian is the soprano soloist. Miss der Derian has appeared here in both Handel's Messiah and Verdi's Requiem.

The Orchestra will be the University Symphony Orchestra directed by Prof. Gerald McLaughlin.

The first rehearsal will be at 7 p.m., Feb. 17 in the Practical Arts Bldg. Students and townspeople who wish to sing in the Requiem may obtain copies at the Choral Activities Office in the Practical Arts Bldg.

Three Profs Give LA Symposium

By BRAD GREENBERG

The humanities, science and mathematics, and social sciences were three phases in a symposium on the liberal arts explained to students in the College of Liberal Arts at the convocation Thursday morning.

The aims of these broad groupings, through the departments of study which they include, are to assist the student in developing "an awareness of your cultural heritage, an appreciation of man's relationships with other men, and an understanding of the world in which we live," Dean Kenneth H. McFall said.

Humanities In Education

Drs. Elden T. Smith, professor of speech, Donald W. Bowman, professor of physics, and C. G. Swanson, professor of sociology, each discussed one of the areas of development.

In relating the place of humanities in education, Dr. Smith correlated the crude beginnings of prehistoric cave-drawings, ritualistic dance, and man's inquisitive-

'Opportunities' Faculty Topic

The faculty of the College of Liberal Arts will hear a panel of speakers from government and industry at 4 p.m., Feb. 16 in 140 Chemistry Bldg. The topic will be "Opportunities for Liberal Arts Graduates."

Speakers on the panel will include representatives from Lazarus Department Store in Columbus, the Ohio Oil Co. in Findlay, Owens-Illinois in Toledo, Ford Motor Co. in Detroit, and United States Civil Service.

Following short speeches members will give view points of their companies regarding Liberal Arts graduates.

The panel discussion is being conducted by the "Committee on Liberal Arts Opportunities" of the College of Liberal Arts, in an attempt to improve services to students of Liberal Arts College.

Prof. Howard O. Brogan of the English department will make the introductory remarks. Prof. John R. Coash, chairman of the Liberal Arts Council and the committee, will conduct the discussion.

Debaters Win Five, Lose Three, Finish Third In Tourney

The University debate team tied for third place in the 13th annual Buckeye Debate Tournament at Kent State University Saturday.

Heidelberg and Central Michigan tied for top honors, with seven victories and one loss in eight debates of its affirmative and negative squads.

Second place went to John Carroll University and the "A" team of Oberlin College. They had six victories and two defeats.

Kasten and Weckesser, debating on the affirmative side of the national debate topic, "Resolved That the United States Should Extend Diplomatic Recognition to the Communist Government of China," won two and lost two.

Packard and Rector, opposing the topic, captured three first places and lost just one.

Contest For New Alma Mater Begins; McDonald Announces $1,100 In Awards

A five-year competition to create a "more stirring and appealing song" as the Alma Mater of Bowling Green State University was announced Friday by Pres. Ralph W. McDonald.

This action was taken by the President in response to a recommendation by the Council on Student Affairs, which began studying the matter of the Alma Mater at its first meeting last fall.

$200 Each Year

Awards of $200 will be given each year—$100 to the composer of the music and $100 to the author of the lyrics of the University song considered the best submitted during the year. At the end of the five-year period, the five songs chosen for the annual awards will be considered for the possible selection of a new Alma Mater for the University.

A parallel award is being offered for the current year, to secure a "more appropriate" second verse of lyrics for the present Alma Mater. An award of $100 will be given to the person who submits the best wording for such a second verse. The purpose of this award is to obtain a "more enjoyable and timely" Alma Mater to use in the meantime, pending final decision on a new Alma Mater five years hence.

First Award May 25

The competition begins immediately, and the first three awards of $100 each are to be made on Honors Day of this year, May 25.

President McDonald has named a special committee to direct and conduct the competition for this year. Members of the committee are Dean Emerson C. Shuck, chairman; Lois Radomsky, Nancy Weatherston, Gerald Murray, Roger Kasten, Merrill C. McEwen, Don A. Cunningham, Mary Jane Gustin, and Natalie Gould.

In accepting appointment as chairman of the committee, Dean Shuck said: "This direct attack upon a long-felt need certainly provides the stimulus for full student cooperation."

Committee Meets

At its first meeting Friday afternoon, the committee decided that competition shall be open to anyone. Students, faculty, townspeople, and alumni are especially urged to enter the contest.

The entries must be suitable for an Alma Mater for the University, "appropriate to the situations where the University Alma Mater would be sung," the committee decided.

Entrants must file intention by April 1, and the deadline for the manuscript will be May 1. All communications are to be sent to the chairman of the committee, Dean Emerson C. Shuck, Administration Bldg.

The committee decided that Senate should be approached on the subject of promoting interest in the competition among the campus organizations.

More detailed rules and regulations for the contest will be announced following further action by the committee.

Illinois Prof To Give Two Geology Talks

Dr. George W. White, chairman of the department of geology at the University of Illinois, will give two lectures at the University, Feb. 16 and 17.

The lecture Feb. 16 will be held at 8 p.m. in 41 Chemistry Bldg. and the topic will be "Geology in the American Colonies." Feb. 17, the lecture will be at 9 p.m. in 1 Elementary School on the topic, "Recent Trends in Glacial Geology."

Dr. White is an expert in the United States on Glacial Geology and works chiefly in northern and eastern Ohio, western New York, and Pennsylvania.

Dr. White's visit is sponsored by the science and mathematics division of the College of Liberal Arts.

Marterie Cancels Dance Contract; Metz, Packard Head Committee

Katherine Metz and Donald Packard are co-chairmen of the University-Anniversary Prom, Carol Payne, Student Senate president, announced.

Four students were appointed by Senate to head prom committees. They are Jean Goldinger, band; George Howick, Miss BG; Herbert Luyk, finance and tickets; and Kathy Biscotti, publicity. No decorations committee chairman has been appointed, although Miss Payne said an art major is being sought for the position.

Dance Honors Seniors

Members of the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes will be used on the various committees. The annual dance honors the graduating seniors.

Katherine Metz

Miss Payne reported that Ralph Marterie and his band had canceled its engagement because of movie commitments. The date for the prom will depend on the availability of another band. Miss Goldinger, together with Barbara Jisa and Richard Marshner, are trying to contact a band, Miss Payne said.

Salberg Appointed

Robert Salberg was granted a seat in Senate for the remainder of the semester. His appointment followed the graduation of two senior senators in January, Mary Beth Peterson and Patricia Scott. He is eligible for the Senate position following his candidacy in last spring's all-campus election. The other seat will be left vacant, Senate decided.

Cast, Crew, Staff Named For 'Angel' Production

The cast, technical staff and crews for the University Players' third major production, "Angel in a Pawnshop," have recently been announced, according to Harold B. Obee, director of the play. The production will be Feb. 22 through 26 at Gate Theatre.

The cast includes Dolores Kolthoff as Priscilla, Ann Potoky as Lizzie, and Frank Toth as the young man. Vincent Tampio will play the part of a drunk, Fred Ashley is to be Hilary, Robert Smith will play Timothy, and Kay Dickerson has the part of Joe. Carroll Thurston will play Duke, Daniel Wawrzyniak as Tom, and Gary Davis as Danny.

A nine piece band from the music department will provide mood music for the show. Instead of merely playing music between scenes, the orchestra will provide background music throughout the entire show. The music is to be synchronized to fade in and out with the actor's lines. The orchestra will appear live only at the first performance. The music for the other four performances will be tape recorded. Seymour Benstock, music department, has arranged and scored the music for the play.

Richard Shaw is head of props. His staff includes Carol Payne, Don Hinde, Jim Rodgers, Suzanne Moran, and Sue Spangler. Lois Taraschke is head of costumes. Her committee includes Carol Bailey and Marlene Martin. Margaret Neumann is chairman of make-up with Bonnie Carmean and Noel Greenhill on her staff.

Margaret Stevens is head of lights with Frank Glann and Tom Conway on the crew. Donald Blake is head of sound with Sandra Clark as his assistant.

In Our Opinion

Action On The Alma Mater

Direct action has been taken by Pres. Ralph W. McDonald to obtain a song for the University which will be more meaningful and representative of the life at Bowling Green. Aspiring songwriters are invited into this competition for monetary reward, giving more impetus to the drive.

The "long-felt need" of which Dean Emerson C. Shuck spoke upon accepting the chairmanship of the committee to direct the contest, was more strongly indicated this fall when the Council on Student Affairs began to study student opinion toward the present Alma Mater.

The long-range plan, that of selecting the best of the entries each year at Honors Day for five consecutive years, will also supply the University with more than one song. These songs may form a nucleus of musical numbers appropriate to our own University. Many universities have complete songbooks filled with contributions from its alumni, students, and faculty.

When the five-year competition has been concluded, the most popular song, the one which the students and faculty have definitely showed they liked best of the five, will be considered the permanent Alma Mater of Bowling Green.

Five years may seem like a long time to those already enrolled in the University, but an alma mater selected through such a plan should prove to be a lasting one.

And There You Are!

Approximately 500 tickets out of a total of 1,186 have been sold for the Dave Brubeck performance Wednesday night. We have already forewarned the student body that a financial loss at this time for the Social Committee will mean the curtailment of social activities for the rest of this semester.

Do you want campus movies and more concerts? Do you want the Social Committee to lessen the amount of money it gives the social groups toward the contracting of orchestras?

If this campus is so jazz happy, why aren't more tickets being sold?

Lines At Deadline

Minnesota, OSU Encounter University Song Difficulties Too

BY GERALD MURRAY

Two items concerning the difficulties other Universities have with their alma maters have popped up coincidentally which show we're not the only institution with such a problem.

One of Bowling Green's faculty members wrote to the editor of the Ohio State Lantern during vacation inquiring about the meaning of OSU's "Carmen Ohio." The letter was printed in the Lantern with an editor's note requesting its readers to submit the story about the origin of the word "Carmen."

A later editorial said, "not because we didn't know ourselves but to find out how many of our readers know." It seems Ohio State's traditional events have been on the decline for the last few years, and the Lantern staff hoped to point out that perhaps "many students are singing a song about which they know very little."

The editorial reprimanded its readers, saying "of the replies we have received so far, none has been exactly right. All of them have quoted the dictionary's definition. While technically this is right, there is a little more to the story than just the dictionary definition of the word."

The other alma mater item was transmitted to us through the Associated Collegiate Press feature service which reported that the University of Minnesota Quiz kids, who have mowed down twelve universities in the weekly College Quiz Bowl program Saturday nights over NBC, came up with a complete blank on one question last week.

Not one could repeat the second stanza of the University's alma mater, "Minnesota, Hail to Thee."

The University is indebted to Trustee Frazier Reams, who gave an extemporaneous commencement speech Friday, Jan. 28, when the scheduled speaker, Dr. Paul Weaver, was delayed by an off-schedule train.

Students at Park College in Parkville, Mo., were jolted before Christmas vacation with the decree that any student who cut his last class, chapel, or work assignment before, or his first one after the vacation would be dropped from the college. His request for reinstatement might be considered by the Administrative Council, but if approved, the student would be expected to pay a $5 fee.

Campus movies were not scheduled for last week end as an economy measure. The Social Committee was taking no chances since Brubeck might not be profitable, and decided it wouldn't help matters any to have played out a valuable $60 for movies the previous week end. Originally, the faculty was scheduled to use the auditorium to entertain the campus last week end with a faculty show, but "chickened out" only a month ago. A full schedule of the movies for this semester will be announced soon.

mankind in some form is explained through a study of political science. The working of the human mind and the nervous system is developed in psychology. Sociology delves into the ways of men.

Dr. Swanson said that the field of anthropology, "comparison of men in different parts of the world and the varieties of behavior which they practice," is rapidly growing. He concluded that social sciences give the student an education in the understanding of our civilization.

Eight Religious Courses Sponsored By UCF

Eight non-credit courses in religion are being offered this semester through the United Christian Fellowship, announced the Rev. Paul Bock, UCF director.

"These courses are being offered in order that students will have an opportunity to do some systematic studying in the field of religion," stated Reverend Bock.

Three of the courses, Basic Christian Beliefs, Life and the Teachings of Jesus, and Introduction to the Old Testament, will continue throughout the semester.

Assisting Rev. Bock in instructing the courses will be the Rev. James Trautwein, pastor of the Bowling Green Episcopal Church, and Otto Sommer, assistant UCF director. Anyone interested in entering these courses may sign up in the Wesley Bldg. where all classes will be taught.

Students To Observe City Teaching Methods

Student teachers and members of the educational psychology classes will be attending classes in the Bowling Green school system for the next two weeks, Dr. Florence J. Williamson, professor of education, stated.

The principal idea of the observations is to check methods used in the teaching of classes.

Kennedy, McLaughlin To Give Joint Concert

Dr. James P. Kennedy, director of choral activities, and Prof. Gerald B. McLaughlin, director of the University Symphony Orchestra will team up to present a concert Sunday, Feb. 20 at 8:15 p.m. in the Practical Arts Auditorium.

This concert, which features Professor McLaughlin playing the violin and Dr. Kennedy at the piano, is to consist of three compositions. Sonata No. 8 in C Minor by Mozart will open the program, followed by Brahms' Sonata in A Major. Following the intermission, Dr. Kennedy and Professor McLaughlin will conclude the concert with Sonata No. 7 in C minor by Beethoven.

Bookstore Makes 25,000 Annual Sales

Nearly 25,000 sales a year are made by the University bookstore, according to Paul D. Shepherd, bookstore manager.

Shepherd stated that a staff of four regular and fifteen extra clerks is required to handle the fall book and supply-buying rush. Peak year for book purchasing was 1946 when approximately 45,000 sales were made including 1,500 in one day. At that time, there was a high veteran enrollment in the University and in a two-day period, 2,100 veterans purchased books.

There are approximately 400 different text books in the bookstore at present. According to Shepherd, most students wait until the semester is a few weeks old before purchasing books. The number of students who return books after purchasing them is relatively small.

5 Frosh Rifle Teams Organized By AFROTC

The Air Force ROTC has announced the formation of five freshman rifle teams that will hold intersquad competition as well as intercollegiate competition with six other university ROTC teams.

Richard Luehrs, James Howell, Dave Busser, Paul Harris, and John Titus will be in charge of the teams. M.Sgt. R. D. Troutman is adviser to the group and John Gargus is coach.

Hospital Lists Services For Student Information

By ROBERT LAUER

During the past school year there has been some confusion as to the health services provided by the University Health Service and by Johnston Hospital. In order that this confusion might be eliminated, and many student queries answered, Mrs. Jane D. Igou, administrator of the University Health Service, has issued the following information about the services.

University Health Service Medical care is divided into two departments, even though the same staff provides both services. There is an Out-Patient Clinic where a preventive type of medical care is provided, and Johnston Hospital, where students receive bed care when it is needed. Both services are housed in the Johnston Hospital building.

Open 24 Hours

The University Health Service is open 24 hours daily during the time school is in session, for care of in-patients and for emergency care of sudden illnesses or accidents. The Out-Patient Clinic is staffed by two full-time physicians, and is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon, on Saturdays. In case of illness or pain, students can come to the Hospital at night, and can obtain transportation from the Campus police.

The Out-Patient Clinic is closed from Saturday noon until Monday morning. However, in case of emergency or sudden illness, a registered nurse is available at the Health Service Hospital, and a physician is on call at all times. If medical care is needed during the week end or at night, students should report to the University Health Service.

Some students have been going to Wood County Hospital for treatment of colds, fevers, and other illnesses. Wood County Hospital does not operate an out-patient department and has no resident doctors. Therefore, it is necessary for the hospital to call a doctor from his home for treatment of students. The student will be charged by the doctor for his call and by the hospital for the use of its facilities.

In case of serious emergency illness, it is sometimes necessary for the University physician to call another physician in for consultation, or to refer the student to another physician. The expense for the consulting physician and for the fees of the physician to whom the student-patient is referred become the full responsibility of the student.

Medical Excuses

When a medical excuse for classes is needed, students should either call the University Health Service or come in before the class meets.

After the 5 p.m. closing hour there are often as many as eight or ten students who report to the hospital for illnesses which are not of an emergency nature and which have been in progress from eight hours to many days.

When the Out-Patient Clinic is closed, it means that from one to six individuals responsible for the operation of the Clinic are not in the Hospital; consequently, the Charge Nurse, who is responsible for the nursing care of the students who are bed patients, must leave the floor and, perhaps, cover from one to six areas in the Out-Patient Clinic. The Charge Nurse is willing, and it is her duty, to supervise the Out-Patient Service at night in cases of emergency or sudden illnesses only. Student cooperation in coming to the Health Service during Out-Patient Clinic regular hours for routine care will be appreciated by the entire Hospital staff.

Muntz Granted Leave For Study At Columbia

Herbert E. Muntz, assistant professor of English, has been granted a leave of absence this semester for graduate study at Columbia University, announced Dr. Emerson C. Shuck, chairman of the English department.

Taking over Mr. Muntz's classes are part-time English instructors, Dr. Mary C. Hissong, and Dr. Virginia E. Leland.

'Patrols' Enforce Rushing Rules

A "roving patrol" has been organized by Interfraternity Council to enforce rushing rules until bids are distributed March 12.

The patrol consists of various fraternity representatives organized into two teams of four men each. These men are council members and will be charged with visiting fraternity houses, on and off campus, at irregular intervals throughout the evenings. They will also visit entertainment establishments in most of the Wood County area.

Roger Kasten, vice-president of the council and chairman of the rushing rules, requested all men who are concerned with the rules to be sure and read them in order to clarify their position and avoid fines or punishment.

Schmeltz To Discuss Income Tax Revisions

William F. Schmeltz, associate professor of business administration, will discuss the income tax laws as they affect the university professor at Thursday night's meeting of the American Association of University Professors, 7:30 p.m. in Studio B of the Practical Arts Bldg.

Professor Schmeltz will discuss the recent revisions to the income tax laws. Opportunity will be given to the audience to ask questions on particular tax problems.

A brief business meeting will precede the program.

NIT-Bound Marquette Too Much For Falcons

BY BILL COOPER

The Bowling Green Falcons fell victim to the ferocious attack by the Marquette Warriors Saturday night at Milwaukee, 101-56.

The Warriors romped to their 18th straight victory, and 18th in 19 games this year. Marquette lost its first game of the season and since then has gone on the rampage of 18 straight games.

Warriors Too Tall

The Falcons could not overcome the height advantage the Warriors possessed and consequently were unable to get their share of the rebounds. Rube Schultz, 6-6, and Terry Rand, 6-8, dominated the boards for Marquette as long as they were in the ball game.

The Warriors jumped to a 5-0 lead and then increased it to 23-8 after six minutes had gone by. By the end of the first half, Marquette held a decisive 52-26 lead.

Rogers Leads Scoring

Captain Bill Rogers led the BG scoring with 12 points as the whole squad saw action. Four Falcons were runner-ups in the scoring parade. Jim Tucker, Jim Reid, Lanny Miles, and Jack Hecker each contributed eight markers for the BG outfit.

Tom Dakich was unable to hit from the field, but sank five foul shots. Max Chapman got a basket and foul for three points. Al Benning and Don Lee rounded out the scoring with just two encounters.

Five Hit Double Figures

Five Marquette cagers hit in the double figures for the nationally ranked Warriors. Hofmensperger, forward, sank seven field goals and four foul shots for 18 points, enough to take scoring honors for the evening.

Rand and Wittberger were not far behind with 17 big points. Schulz garnered 16 points to take third place in the Marquette scoring. The final player to hit in the double figures was Bugalski with 11.

Six reserves also contributed to the Warriors' superb scoring machine. Marquette connected on 34 shots and 33 fouls for their decisive win.

The Falcons record now stands at five wins and twelve losses for the season. They have just four more games so it is an impossibility for them to finish with a 50% won-lost record.

PRESSBOX PORTRAITS

By DICK BUDD

Open your mouth and someone will invariably put his foot in it. In the past weeks this column has been prodding the ROTC department for action on the Army-Air Force basketball game. When we ran into Capt. Maynard, instructor in AFROTC, at the Sports Arena last Wednesday night, a small jest in that direction led to a new era in basketball.

The Captain decided that if we couldn't rouse the cadets to action, the regular officers would have to hold up the banner, and an on-the-spot game was scheduled between the ROTC officers and the B-G News.

The officers made one stipulation; that the B-G News use no ringers. We wonder if the ROTC staff realizes that Bill Rogers is a member of the B-G News staff?

The Marquette Warriors, who mauled the Falcons in Milwaukee Saturday night, have been climbing into the national ratings at breakneck speed. Marquette's bid to the NCAA tournament was announced just prior to the BG-Marquette game.

If anyone wonders why the campus has been packed with automobiles this past week, the Wood County tournament is the answer. The Class B tournament started Thursday and continued through Saturday night.

CRY FROM THE WILDERNESS. Our soap box lecture this week pertains to the new foul rule. This subject has been hashed and rehashed since its introduction this season. Our vote goes with the abolitionists of this ruling.

Swimmers Drop Initial MAC Meet To OU

By DAY WILLSE

Ohio University squeaked out a 45-39 victory in an MAC swimming meet at Bowling Green, Saturday afternoon. The Bobcats started off by capturing the 300 yard medley relay breaking the dual meet record in the time of 3:02.5.

The 220 yd. freestyle was taken by Tom Richmond, the outstanding distance man in the OU lineup. Jim O'Connor and Dick Rice were second and third respectively, thus making the score 10-4. However, the Bobcats pulled further in front as their ace sprinter, Tad Potter won the 50 yd. freestyle and was followed by teammate Botuchis. Dave Hamilton of BG was third.

Atkinson Wins

Then the Falcons' Paul Atkinson won his event, the 150 individual medley, in fine fashion as he eclipsed the dual meet by 1.2 seconds, winning in the time of 1:39.2. He was followed by OU's Tom Hartley and BG's Karl Seidl.

This gave the Bobcats a commanding 29-12 lead going into the 100 yd. freestyle. Don Kepler of BG nosed out Potter, and Hamilton took another third.

BG Takes Backstroke

Bowling Green came back strongly in the 200 yd. backstroke, taking the first two places. Paul Dressel, as expected, won the event, but the thrill of the day came when Atkinson, trailing by more than a body-length overtook OU's Schwartz on the final lap. This feat put the Falcons in hot pursuit, making the score 33-26.

The 200 yd. breaststroke proved to be the crusher on Bowling Green as the Bobcats took the first two places. Hartley and Kroh being the winning swimmers while BG's Jimmy Repp was third.

O'Connor Wins

The 440 yd. freestyle was taken in brilliant form by O'Connor as he was pushed by Richmond all the way. Both swimmers hit the best times of their lives in this event as O'Connor's winning time was 5:12. Krecic of Ohio U. took a third, beating out Kepler.

The Falcons won the freestyle relay very handily as Rose, Seidl, Atkinson and Hamilton increased the lead gradually until it became a rout. This ended the meet very closely, with the Bobcats ahead by only six points.

Matmen Beat W. Ontario To Gain Third Win, 21-5

The Bowling Green wrestling team scored as easy 21-5 win over Western Ontario, Saturday in the Men's Gym. The Falcons won seven of the eight matches in recording their third victory against two defeats and one tie.

Three Chosen At Social Events Over Weekend; Frats Hold Parties

Three different groups chose sweethearts to reign at their dances and parties over the week end.

Roger Smith, a freshman from Cleveland, was chosen King Cupid at the Kohl Hall formal Friday night. He was crowned with a golden crown by his date, Myrtle Cramer, from Alger, Ohio.

Philip Kilpatrick, a senior from Youngstown, was named King of Hearts at the Alpha Xi Delta all-campus dance Saturday night. He was presented with a trophy and serenaded by the Alpha Xi Sextette at intermission.

Carrole Whitmill, of Toledo, was chosen the 1955 Zeta Beta Tau sweetheart at their annual Sweetheart Dance held at the chapter house Saturday night. The fraternity presented Miss Whitmill with a bracelet, and later serenaded her.

Carole Whitmill vited their dates and rushees to a Mardi Gras party at their house Friday evening.

Both Kappa Sigma and Sigma Nu held a Valentine's party at their respective houses for members and their dates Saturday evening. Members of Sigma Phi Epsilon turned their chapter house into a western saloon and gambling casino for a date party Friday evening.

Pi Kappa Alpha recently received the fraternity's District V scholarship cup. The award was made for the 1953-54 academic year. Of the ten chapters throughout Michigan, Ohio, and West Virginia, it was the second year the fraternity was highest in scholarship.

Delta Tau Delta initiated its first annual kick-off dinner Feb. 9. Guests included numerous sorority girls. Singing followed the dinner and a skit was presented by Richard Jones.

Sigma Chi recently initiated Emil Petti, Thomas Burke, and Wayne Schake.

Prattle Of The Past

Kohl Men Organize Businesses; Campus Dance Honors Services

An account of past happenings at the University taken from the files of the B-G News.

Residents of Kohl Hall could take a business tip from their predecessors. Kohl boarders of 1940, who, incidentally, were men, ran a variety of business enterprises in the dorm. Almost a community in itself, the dormitory boasted a tux rental and date bureau, a sandwich service for those who liked midnight snacks, a pants and suit pressing company, two film developing and printing enterprises, and two dry-cleaning plants. They also had a sign-painting business and room-cleaning service.

An All-Campus dance in 1942 with a patriotic theme was given in honor of the service men. Admittance to the dance was gained only if the couple brought a package of cigarettes, gum, or candy. All proceeds were given to the U.S.O. which in turn distributed them to army camps.

What has happened to the tradition of Sadie Hawkins Week? It seems that in the "old days" the females took more initiative. Rules then stated that women would do all the dating, pay all the expenses, exchange dances, check the coats, help men into cars, and open and close doors for them. They also called for the men and took them home. (Perhaps the women have decided the men should take over, now that Li'l Abner is a married man.)

University students in 1938 witnessed the ground-breaking of the first building to be built under the P.W.A. program. That building was the Women's Gymnasium. U.S. Senator Robert Buckley, from Cleveland, and other congressmen and representatives of the state, and local dignitaries were on hand for the event. Senator Buckley dug the first spade of dirt for the cornerstone. The spade used has since been inscribed and now hangs in a hall at Washington commemorating the first job in the United States under the P.W.A. program.
